DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. Claim 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Logan 3,063,500. Logan shows a debris cap 1 comprising a container (unnumbered container that inherently supplies the protective oil to 25) pre-charged with corrosion inhibitor prior to completion of the installation (col. 3, lines 15-28) where the corrosion inhibitor (protective oil) is released into a stagnant volume in vessel enclosed under debris cap 1 over a wellhead. As concerns claim 7, Logan shows a valve 30 allowing for water displacement during installation, considered to include the process of introducing the protective oil.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 2-6 and 8-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. As noted above, Logan shows a casing that is considered a debris cap having a container that releases a corrosion inhibitor into the casing via 25.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
